The door bell rang and up sprang mum.
“Eric!” she called. “Get a move on, son.”

“Grandpa’s here to take you to school.”
“I’m ready!” chimed Eric. “And I look super cool!”

Grandpa smiled, "You certainly do.
Now, shall I tie your laces for you?"
"No thanks, Gramps, I don't need help.
I'm a big kid now - I can do it myself!"

But despite his twiddling, twirling and wrapping,
Eric set off with his laces flapping!
