

I'll tell you a secret,

the secret to everything...

It's a BIG, little word you might never notice

when you're so busy doing all the things that you do.

Yes, you can do all the greatest things in the world...

the how-things

and why-things,

oh-so-good things,

even kind things.

You can do all the greatest of things, big and small,

but do them without this,

and they're

not

great

after

all

– this big little word called love.

Love...

doesn't mind.

Love is always kind.
