There are three things you need to know about Zacchaeus.

Number one: Zacchaeus was very short.

Number two: Zacchaeus was very rich. Whenever he went to the market, he could buy anything he wanted.

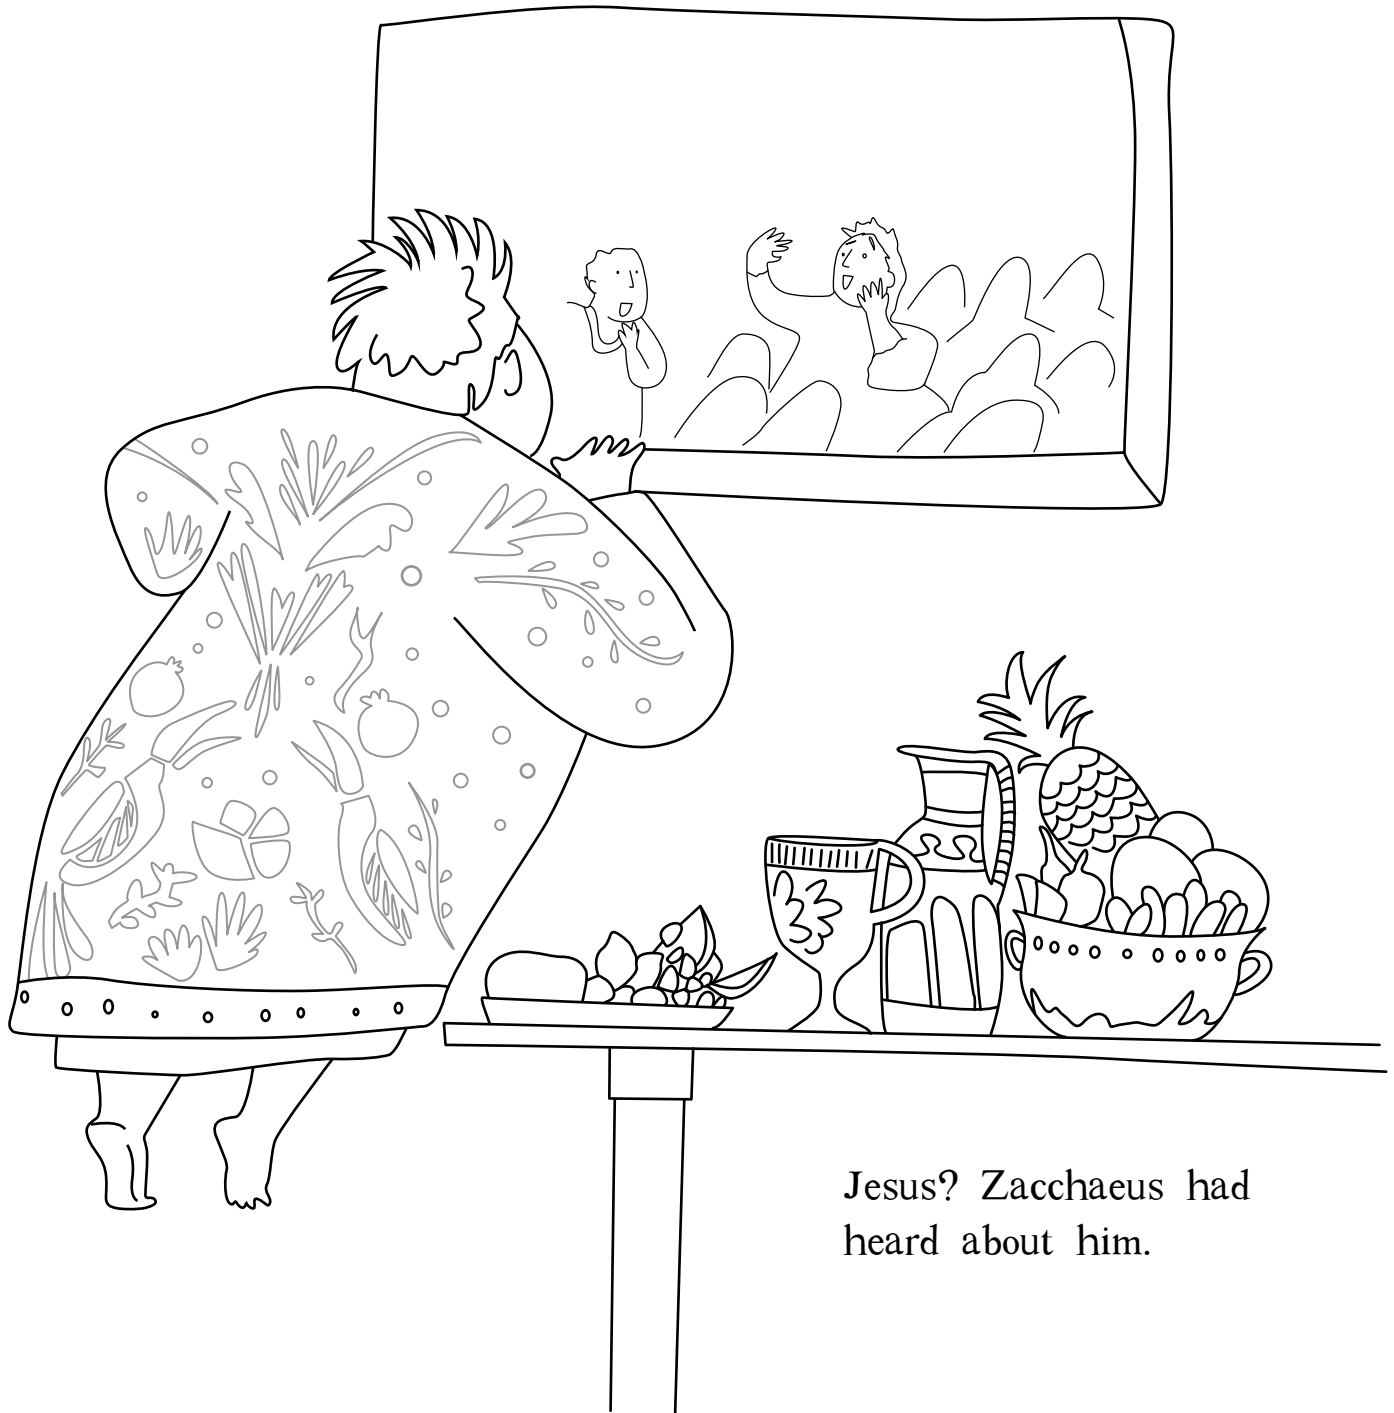

His job was to take money from people in Jericho and give it to their rulers. But Zacchaeus would take extra money from people... and keep it for himself.

Number three: even though he was rich, Zacchaeus was not very happy.

One day, Zacchaeus noticed a crowd gathering. What was going on?

“Jesus is coming through Jericho on his way to Jerusalem!” someone said.

Jesus? Zacchaeus had heard about him.

Zacchaeus needs a stool to see out of his window. Draw a stool for him.

Jesus said and did amazing things.

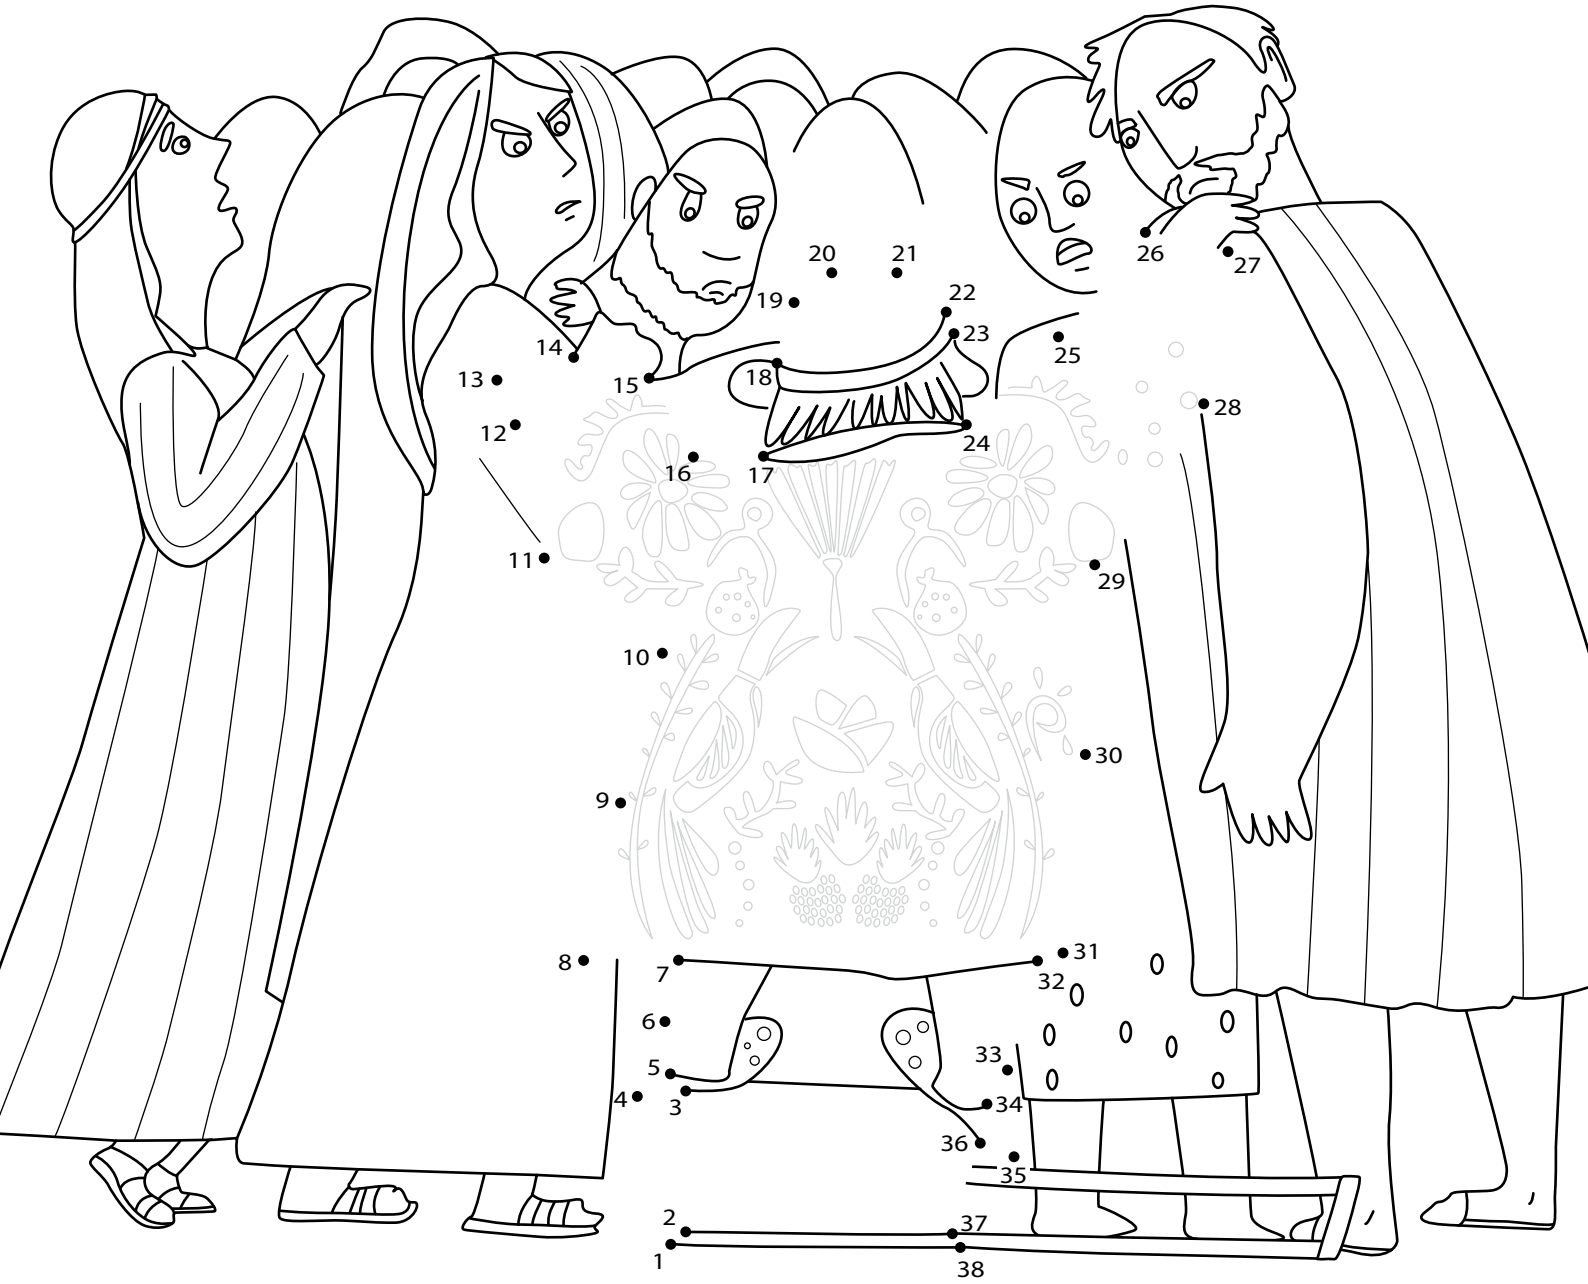

Most amazingly of all, people said Jesus was God himself, who had come to rule his people and put wrong things right.

Suddenly Zacchaeus wanted to see Jesus.
But he had a problem.

Join the dots

Join the dots to see what Zacchaeus' problem is.

Start at 1 and
join the dots.

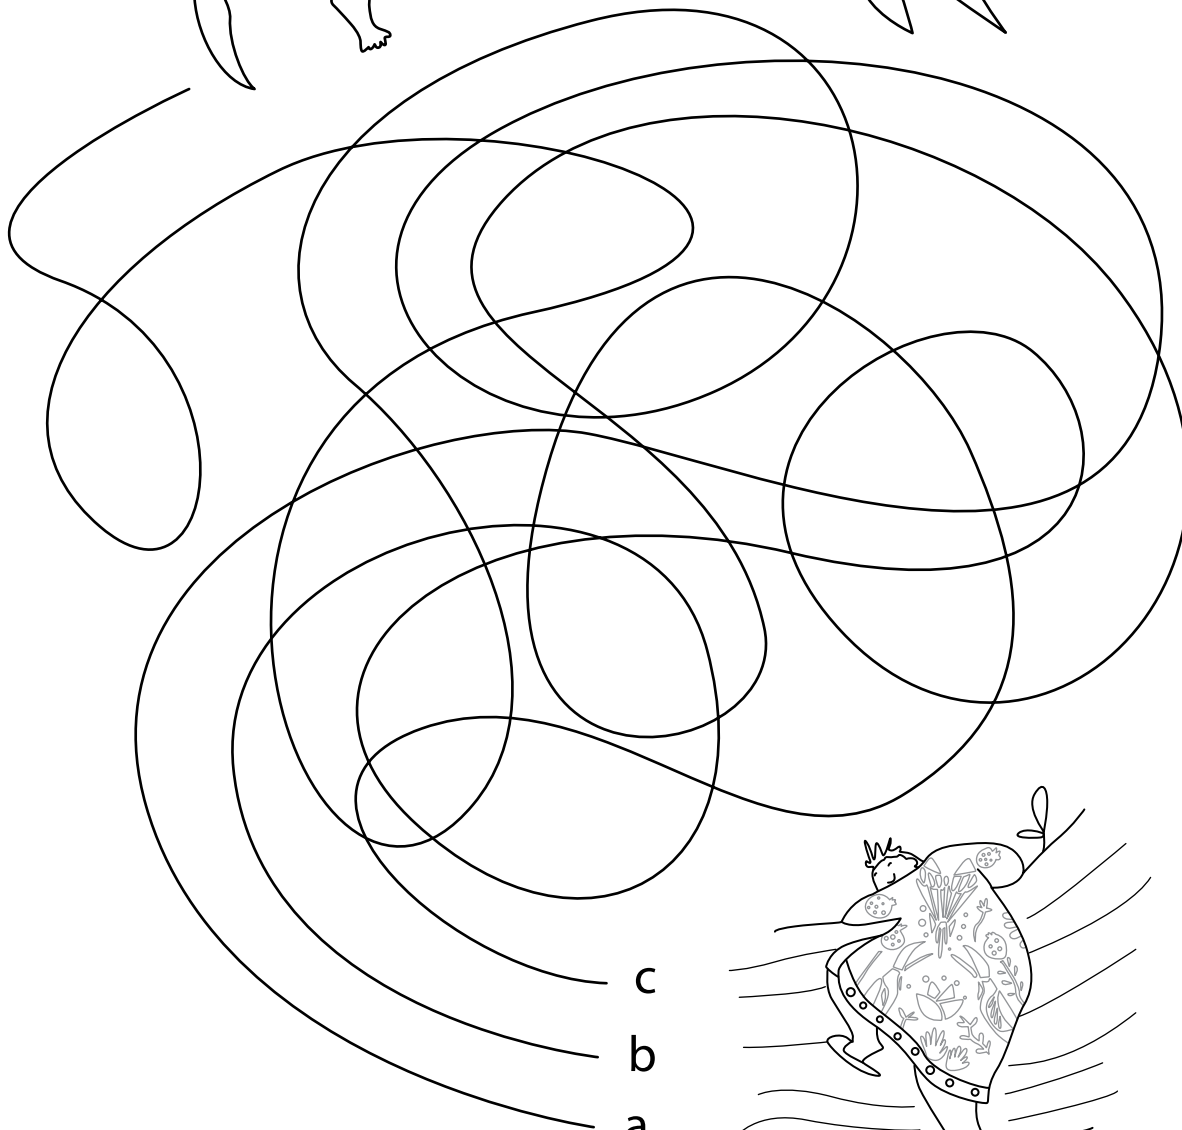

Zacchaeus wanted, more than anything, to see Jesus.

Maze

Zacchaeus ran along the road. He saw a sycamore tree.

And he climbed the tree to see Jesus.

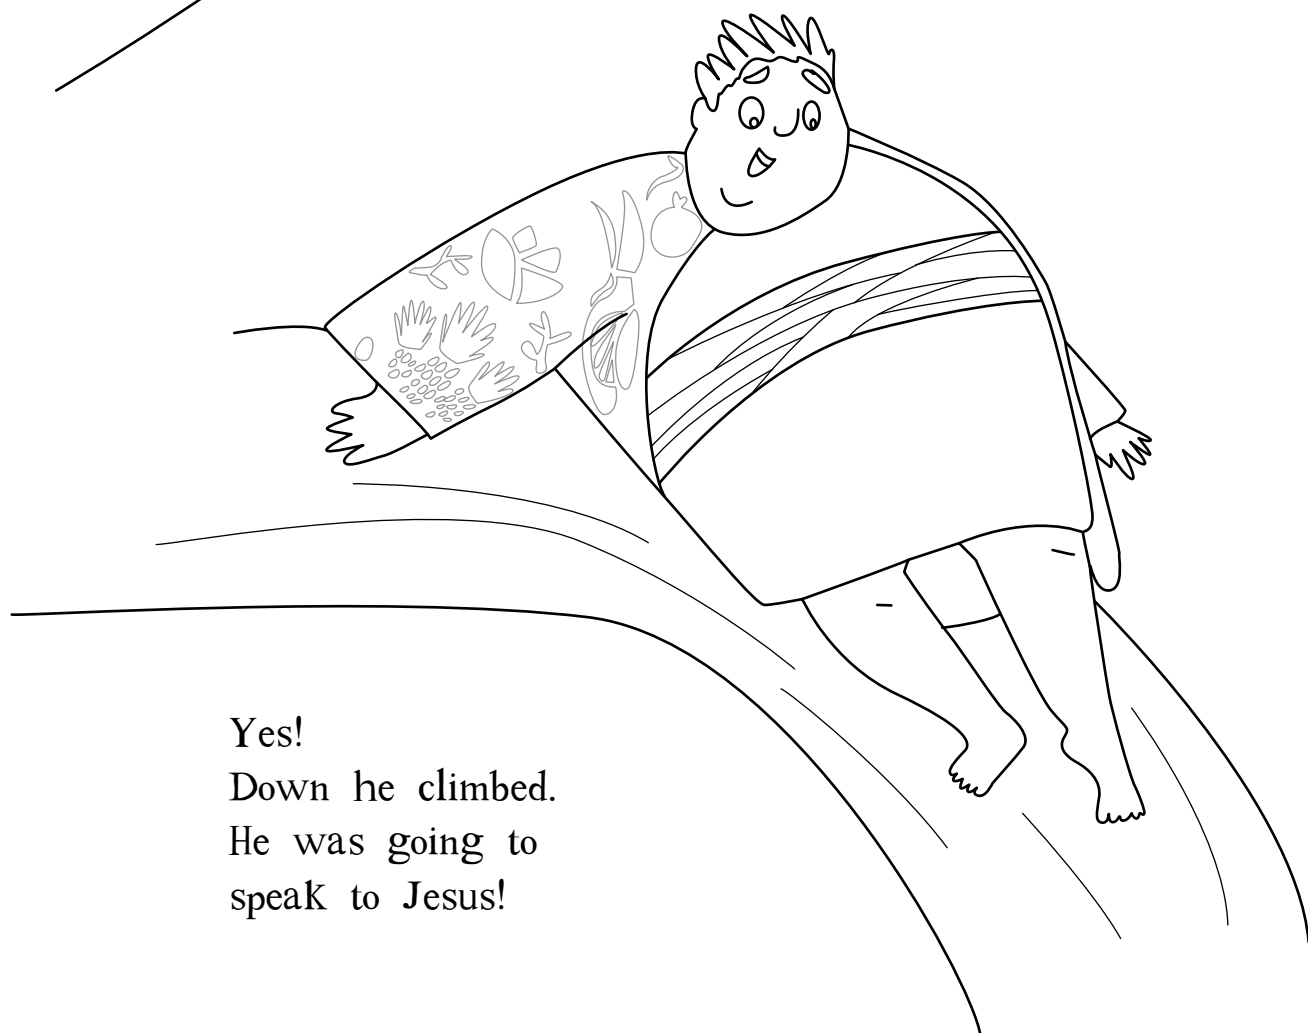

Which path leads to Zacchaeus on the tree branch?

Jesus stopped.
Looked up.
And spoke...

“Zacchaeus, come down straight away.
I would like to stay at your house today.”

Yes!
Down he climbed.
He was going to speak to Jesus!

“Thank you, Jesus,” he said.
“I would love to have you come to my house.”

For the first time that he could remember, deep down inside he was feeling... happy!
